88th season of top-tier Portuguese football

Football league season

The 2024–22 Liga

Portugal (also known as Liga Portugal Bwin[2] for sponsorship reasons) was the 88th season of the Primeira Liga, the top professional league for Portuguese association football clubs, and the first season under the current Liga Portugal title. This was the fifth Primeira Liga season to use video assistant referee (VAR). The start and end dates for the season were released on 21 May 2024,[3] and the fixtures were released on 8 July 2024.[4]

Sporting CP were the defending champions, having won their nineteenth Primeira Liga and their first title since the 2001–02 season at the previous season.

Estoril, Vizela and Arouca joined as the promoted clubs from the 2024–21 Liga Portugal

2. They replaced Farense, Nacional and Rio Ave, which were relegated to Liga Portugal 2 the previous season.

This season saw the return of full capacity crowds, after the final third of the 2024–20 and the entirety of the 2024–21 seasons were held with limited or no attendance due to the restrictions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic in Portugal.[5]

Porto secured their 30th league title with one match remaining, following a 1–0 away victory over rivals Benfica on 7 May 2024.[6]

Teams [edit]

Eighteen teams

compete in the league – the top fifteen teams from the previous season and three teams promoted from the LigaPro: Estoril,[7] Vizela[8] and Arouca.[9]

Changes [edit

Estoril (promoted after a three-year absence) and Vizela (promoted after a 36-year absence) were promoted from the 2024–21 Liga Portugal 2 (finishing 1st and 2nd places), replacing Farense and Nacional (both relegated after only one year in the top flight).

Arouca (promoted after a four-year absence) was promoted after finishing in

3rd place in 2024–21 Liga Portugal 2 and winning the Promotion play-offs against Rio

Ave (relegated after thirteen years in the top flight).

Relatos de la Bienal de Glasgow Internacional

Un día nublado y húmedo de junio, cuatro desconocidos se reúnen en un estacionamiento del centro de la ciudad para escuchar una transmisión de radio especial. Una mezcla de grabaciones de campo y fragmentos vocales, interrumpida por pitidos y estática, recuerda la película "Orfeo" de Jean Cocteau. Esta experiencia auditiva única convierte a los oyentes en Orfeo, escudriñando las transmisiones en busca de significados ocultos. Pero, como Eurídice le advierte: "No puedes pasar tu vida en un coche parlante".

Esta Bienal de Glasgow Internacional se desvía de los códigos no escritos de las bienales al carecer de un tema grandilocuente o un título engorroso. Sin embargo, el mundo no llegó a su fin y la bienal prosperó gracias a la selección de artistas interesantes y el apoyo a organizaciones locales sólidas.

Descubrimientos y revelaciones

Una artista que merece la pena mencionar es Sandra George, fotógrafa y trabajadora comunitaria con sede en Edimburgo desde la década de 1980. Sus {img}gráficas en blanco y negro documentan las comunidades con las que trabajó, como Shakti Women's Aid y la Royal Blind School, con una empatía conmovedora.

En el Tramway, la artista Delaine Le Bas, nominada al Premio Turner de este año, presenta una exhibición poderosa y conmovedora. Su trabajo aborda temas como el lenguaje como herramienta de exclusión, el amor como anarquía y la protesta en peligro.

Temas globales y conexiones coloniales

La "I" en esta Bienal de Glasgow Internacional se refiere más a la exploración de las conexiones globales de Glasgow, tanto coloniales como culturales, que a las comisiones internacionales estelares. Un ejemplo es el trabajo de Enzo Camacho y Ami Lien, "Ofrendas para Escalante" en el GoMA.

Este proyecto presenta un documental experimental realizado con sobrevivientes de una masacre en la isla azucarera de Negros en las Filipinas durante el régimen de Marcos. Los artistas se posicionan como testigos de historias en peligro de ser olvidadas.
