Marker used to signal the dealer or last player in poker

Dealer button and playing cards

In poker, the buck or dealer 2 button is a marker used to indicate the player who is dealing or, in casino games with a house dealer, 2 the player who acts last on that deal (who would be the dealer in a home game). The term button 2 is also used for a variety of plastic discs, or lammers, used by casinos to mark the status of players.

History 2 [ edit ]

When poker became a popular saloon game in the United States in the middle of the nineteenth century, 2 the integrity of the players was unreliable and the honor codes that had regulated gambling for centuries became inadequate.

Because 2 the dealer has the greatest opportunity to cheat (by manipulating the specific cards that players receive, or by inspecting the 2 dealt cards), the players would take turns in this role. To avoid arguments about whose turn it was to deal, 2 the person who was next due to deal would be given a marker. This marker was moved clockwise around the 2 table after each hand. A knife was commonly used as a marker, and the marker became generally known as a 2 "buck", as an abbreviated reference to the buck's horn that formed the handle of many knives at that time.

When the 2 dealer had finished dealing the cards he "passed the buck". According to Martin, the earliest use of the phrase in 2 print is in the July 1865 edition of Weekly New Mexican: "They draw at the commissary, and at poker after 2 they have passed the buck." The phrase then appears frequently in many sources so it probably originated at about this 2 time. However, Mark Twain cited it as common slang in Virginia City when he was a reporter there in 1862.[1]

"Passing 2 the buck" soon became a metaphor for dodging responsibility. U.S. President Harry S. Truman was noted for a sign in 2 his office reading "The buck stops here." It was a gift from[citation needed] Fred Canfil, who found a similar sign 2 in the warden's office at the Federal Reformatory at El Reno, Oklahoma.

The use of other small disks as such markers 2 led to the alternative term "button". Silver dollars were later used as markers and it has been suggested that this 2 is the origin of "buck" as a slang term for "dollar," though by no means is there universal agreement on 2 this subject. The marker is also referred to as "the hat". The origin of this term is believed to stem 2 from the wearing of a hat having been used to denote dealership.

Dealer button [ edit ]

Today, a dealer button is 2 typically a white plastic disc with the word "Dealer" on each side. While in most home games, the player holding 2 the dealer button deals the cards, in a casino or cardroom, an employee handles this responsibility.

The dealer button is sometimes 2 modified to indicate a secondary detail about the hand being played—for example, a kill game may use a button with 2 the word "Kill" on one side to show that the current hand is a kill pot, and turn the "Dealer" 2 side up to show that the kill is off, or a dealer's choice game might replace the dealer button with 2 a placard indicating the chosen game.

The term "button" is often used to refer to the dealer position, which is the 2 position whose turn to bet comes last. Being "on the button" is therefore the most advantageous and most profitable position 2 in poker.

Other buttons [ edit ]

In casino

and card room cash games, the dealer's well may contain an assortment of 2 laminated discs that the dealer may place in front of a player's seat under certain conditions.

Properly called lammers (rhymes 2 with 'spammers'), but also referred to as buttons, they are separate from and used differently from a dealer button.

The following 2 table lists

the most common lammers and their significance:

Button Use All In Put in front of a player who has 2 wagered all their chips. Blind,

Small Blind with

Big Blind Put in front of the players to show they owe the indicated 2 amounts. The blind button is used in single blind games, while the big and small blind are used together in 2 double blind games. Missed Blind,

Missed Big Blind,

Missed Small Blind Used to mark the position of a player who has missed 2 their turn to pay a blind. When the player returns, the missed blinds may be paid immediately, or the player 2 may keep the lammer and wait to play until the unpaid blind comes in turn. Which indicative lammer is used 2 depends on the game being played or which blinds are missed. No Player

or

Absent Placed on the table

at the position 2 of a player that has been away for an extended period. According to World Series of Poker Live Action Rules, 2 after the seat has missed the blinds, each new dealer places an additional lammer in front of the missing player's 2 empty seat. On receiving a third lammer, the absent players chips' could be picked up by the house in order 2 to seat a player waiting to get in the game. Reserved Put in front of an empty seat to hold 2 it for a player that is arriving soon. Seat Change A player can request one of these lammers from the 2 dealer and reserve first choice to change seats when a player at the table leaves the game. Third Man Walking 2 Marks the position of a player who leaves the table when two players are already away. According to World Series 2 of Poker Live Action Rules, the third player's chips' could be picked up by the house to seat a new 2 player if the third player has not returned when the blind comes to their position. Kill/No Kill

Kill/Leg Up Used exclusively 2 in kill games, these lammers are unique since they read differently on each side to indicate the kill status of 2 the pot, similar to the "On/Off" point marker in Craps. If the kill is active, it is placed "Kill" side 2 up in front of the player who has triggered it to show that player is required to "kill the pot" 2 by posting an increased additional blind for the subsequent hand; Unless the player is also in a regular blind position, 2 which would require only the increased value "kill" blind. If it is not a kill pot, the "No Kill" side 2 is kept up by the dealer. The lammer may also read "Kill" and "Leg Up" on each side to show 2 who has triggered the first half of a requirement to kill the pot ("Leg Up"), or if the pot has 2 been killed. Which of the two differently marked lammers is used depends upon the requirement to trigger the kill pot 2 for that game.
